

Invitation

Academy of Education and Association of institutions for adult education in Slovakia

Invite you to an international conference

Identification, assessment and recognition of informally acquired competences (IBAK)

6 - 7 May 2010, Bratislava, Slovak Republic

The conference is to bring participants methods and knowledge of experts in the identification, assessment and recognition of informally acquired competences in Europe and a space to debate the current situation and prospects in this field.

Program

Thursday 6 May 2010

(Grosslingova 4, Bratislava)

09.30h - 12.00h - 1st Session

Introductory statements by

Prof. PhDr. Pavol Mešťan, DrSc., member of the Central Council of the Academy of Education

Ing. Jozef Habánik, PhD., State Secretary of the Ministry of Education of the Slovak Republic

Marcus Flachmeyer

The project Identification, assessment and recognition of informally acquired competences

Ruth Eckhardt, Veronique Hauser

The validation of informally acquired skills - framework and examples

Laurent Michel, Angèle Rieffel

The French Validation of the Acquis de l'Expérience: methods, reference framework and the role of the panel

12:00 - 13:30 Lunch break

13:30 - 16:00 - 2nd Session

Henk Mulder

The Dutch EVC-code as an example of quality assurance and - development in the recognition of skills

Arunas Beksta, Ausra Fokiene, Lina Vaitkute, Vilija Lukosuniene

Identification, assessment and recognition of informally acquired competences at universities

Panel discussion

Friday 7 May 2010

(Gorkého 10, Bratislava)

09.30h - 10.00h Classification for workshops

10:00 - 12:00 Workshops run in parallel

Laurent Michel

Country Overview of France; UAE a model for Europe? Validity, cost and environment

Theresa Brettl and Stefanie Moor

CH-Q and balance of skills - practical experience

Július Matulčík, Veronika Vasilová

Skills in the family - an instrument of assessment and recognition of family skills

12:00 - 13:30 Lunch break

13:30 - 15:00 Workshops run in parallel

Ruth Eckhardt, Veronique Hauser

Validation of informally acquired skills

Ortrud Harhues, Christine Nussart

Informal learning and volunteering

Klaudius Šilhár:

Status and importance of the identification, assessment and recognition of informally acquired competences in Slovakia

Marcus Flachmeyer

Identification, assessment and recognition of skills - methodological challenges for practice

Closing Remarks

General information and registration for the conference

Akadémia vzdelávania, Gorkého 10, 815 17 Bratislava 1, Slovakia sona.balazova @ aveducation.sk

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme

